

Another Victim of the Great Blizzard

The blizzard this week caused two (some places three) days of school to be cancelled. Hundreds of cars were stranded on Lakeshore Drive in Chicago. Thousands of flights were cancelled across the country. People are having problems getting to the Super Bowl. We found out today there is yet another victim of the blizzard.

The replacement projector for Ren's Café didn't get here – the truck was “stuck!”

For Pointers who call Ren's the worship venue, we have a fantastic alternative for you for this weekend! The projector will be here Monday. So, please get your coffee, pretzel, and cinnamon rolls and journey to the Centre – our former main. If you are not sure where that is, just stand still with your coffee and roll in your hand and look lost and someone will assist you. Cool?

This is a great opportunity to invite someone who normally doesn't attend church to experience something new with you. Do “the ask” and bring your friends, family, and/or neighbor to the adventure with you. Same deal – tell them to just look lost and someone will be right there to help.

I love the flexibility of Pointers – we can make anything fun and life changing ... even a blizzard!

See you this weekend!
